OUR THIRD GREAT REBUILDING SALE.

The Tide Has Turned in our Favor for Greater and Grander Improvements....

The two buildings on Eighth Street, which have been hanging fire for the past sixty days, have at last come into our possession. Not a day will be lost in pulling down these old landmarks. The contractors start bright and early tomorrow to demolish both structures—we at the same time start our third week of sacrificing values. All departments which occupy the north wall space will have to vacate. Some changes have already been made. Black and colored Dress Goods occupy a space on the third floor. Our Men's Department has joined issues with the silks. Our Living Department will be next-door neighbor to knit underwear, and so on. But such changes should not interfere with your shopping so long as our rebuilding prices have the magnetism and power to draw you here.

Our Wash Goods Selling

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

The Times Are Good.

George E. Roberts, the Director of the Mint, returned from a long Western trip yesterday.

He expressed himself as being delighted with conditions in that portion of the country. He stated that property was everywhere and money is plentiful, and that there is plenty of employment at good wages to be had.

Two Petitions in Bankruptcy.

Two petitions in voluntary bankruptcy were filed yesterday with the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District. One was by John J. Forsyth, who states his place of business at 1225 G Street, and the other by Frederick W. Evans.

The former lists his liabilities at $2,700 and his assets consisting of stock in trade, household effects, and debt due him aggregating $800. Evans returns his liabilities at $12,000, but submits no list of assets.

He Must Pay Interest.

The Commissioners have informed R. Lewis Blackford, of 809 F Street northwest, with reference to the special assessment for a curb and sidewalk against lot 82, in square 212, bounded by Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and N Street, and Massachusetts Avenue northwest, that, inasmuch as the owner of the lot failed to take advantage of the Commissioners' order of July 12, 1898, permitting the payment of the assessment during that month without the penalty, interest thereon will be charged from then till the time of payment.

The Plans of a New Engine House.

Leon Deser, the architect, visited the office of District Commissioner Wright yesterday and submitted drawings of the proposed new engine house to be located in Truittstown. The design is attractive, and shows a building two stories high built of buff brick. The roof, which will be of red brick and tile, will overhang the upper story several feet after the Spanish style of architecture. An ornamental tower will be erected at one of the rear corners of the building. This tower will be used for drying hose. The Commissioners are pleased with the design, and as soon as the details and working drawings are finished proposals will be asked for the erection of the structure.

The Hucksters to Be Reeducated.

Much complaint has been made about the loud cries of hucksters along the streets. Residents of the northeast section of the city have been particularly annoyed, and most of the complaints have come from that section. The law forbids the making of needless noise and outcry, and although the hucksters claim that they have the right to make outcry, they must keep within reasonable bounds. The police have been instructed to see that they do not make nuisances of themselves.

They Complain of Dust.

The District Commissioners have received a long petition from George W. Tallent and other residents of Northeast Washington regarding the dust nuisance along Florida Avenue, between Ninth and Twelfth Streets northeast. The petitioners seem to think that the street has been watered and sprinkled irregularly, and asked that an investigation be made. Warner Stabler, Supervisor of Street Cleaning, to whom the matter was referred, reported that the street is being sprinkled twice a day, which is the best possible arrangement for the money that is available. The petitioners will be so informed.

Census Supervisor Recommendations.

Out of the total of 260 census supervisors, 206 have been recommended to Director Merriam by Congressmen. Appointment Clerk Langley, of the Census Bureau, returned from Lexington, Ky., yesterday morning, and it is stated that the President will confer with Director Merriam on the appointments of the supervisors before August 1. The following supervisors were named yesterday for West Virginia: First district, Harvey G. Harner, of Charleston; Second district, Lamar C. Powell, of Fairmont; Third district, E. L. Dunn, of Red Sulphur Springs, and Fourth district, Thomas A. Brown, of Elmhurst.

The Mortality Record.

The following deaths were recorded at the Health Office yesterday: Joseph Anthony, 90 years; Jesse F. Mann, 80 years; Mary Hood Henry, 78 years; William E. Mastin, 71 years; Samuel Brown, 68 years; Phyllis Nichols, 65 years; Frank Bodwell, 61 years; Harrietta Parker, 50 years; Carrie L. Caruthers, 41 years; George E. Brooker, 36 years; Maggie Burke, 35 years; Thomas Powers, 27 years; Julian T. Arnold, 26 years; Susan Anderson, 2 years; Lola Elizabeth Lucas, 1 year; Edward P. Palmer, 11 months; Dorothy Jeffries, 10 months; Nellie G. Dant, 9 months; Ellen H. McDonough, 9 months; Burtie Robinson, 6 months; Rosa H. Cooke, 6 years; James M. Newby, 5 months; Wilkeson Gaillard, 4 months.

He Asks $5,000 Damages.

Suit for $5,000 was filed against the Capital Traction Company yesterday by William J. Means, who claims the amount claimed for personal injury sustained by him because of alleged negligence on the part of the defendant company. Means states that on May 7 last, while he was a passenger aboard one of the cars of the Capital Traction Company, near the Rock Creek Bridge, he was thrown against one of the trolley poles of the old Chevy Chase car, which were still standing over the lines operated by the defendant company's underground trolley system. He says his right hip, both shoulders, and his side were painfully and seriously injured, incapacitating him from labor for several months.

A Special Permit Granted.

Charles H. McNeill, attorney-at-law, has requested the Commissioners to grant a special permit to George R. Reppert, for the erection of two two-story dwelling houses in the west side of Eighth Street northwest, between Pennsylvania Avenue and E Street. The thoroughfare is now classified as a business street. The number of business houses exceeds the number of residences, and the Commissioners see no reason why they should eliminate the present classification of the street. They have, however, granted the permit to Mr. Reppert, who may erect the dwellings upon his lot, and also the law window and step attachments, by reerecting the building line to that extent which will conform the improvement upon public space within the limit allowed by the regulations.

An Honest Coal Value! $3.99 Ton

—for grand "WYOMING" COAL.
A little price for a splendid white ash free-burning coal. It is a price we've made low to encourage buying coal now instead of waiting until fall or winter. Shall we send you a couple tons or so? Phone 476, and we'll deliver promptly in a choice wagon if you prefer. It's a bargain, mean your paying more than $3.99 a ton, so place your order immediately.

UNEEDA BISCUIT

Injuries Caused His Death.
Samuel A. Wiggins, the aged Pension Office clerk who fell downstairs at his home in the Pierce Hill Road, Wednesday, died at Georgetown Hospital, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was sixty-seven years old. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and died from the shock sustained by his nervous system.

Marriage Licenses Issued.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Isaiah H. Taylor, of Baltimore, Md., and Florence E. Dalton, of Richmond, Va.; Francis H. Case and Sarah K. Ash, of Washington; H. Fey and Annie M. Turner; Joseph M. Batti and Mary Anna Jordan; George G. Better and Noma Wycher; Johnnie A. Conley and Lillie Crockett, and William C. Waits and Loretta V. Browner.

Has Her Husband Arrested.

Edward H. Johnson, a young painter, was arrested by Policeman Vandewater last night, on a warrant charging him with assault with intent to kill. His wife, Emily, is the complainant. She swore out a warrant against her husband. The prosecution appears to be the outcome of a family fight. The Johnsons live in Thirtieth, near G Street northwest.

Two Months of Wedded Bliss.

A petition for divorce was filed yesterday by Laura E. Miller, who asks the court to grant her a legal separation from her husband, Charles E. Miller, whom she alleges deserted her and left her without any means of support. The parties were married in Alexandria, on February 5, 1887, and Mrs. Miller says that on April 5 following, her husband deserted her.

A Yellow Fever Report Denied.

The rumor that yellow fever had made its appearance in the Washington barracks, is declared to be without the slightest foundation. The disease was said to have been brought from Porto Rico by the members of Battery J, of the Fifth Artillery, who have recently returned from that island. There was no yellow fever in Porto Rico when the troops left the island, and the rumor is attributed to a report under restriction of the leave of private soldiers from the barracks. The rumor of the order to supply a measure of discipline.

They Protest Against a Change.

A delegation of liquor dealers from Baltimore representing the Liquor Dealers' Association called at the office of the Commissioners of Internal Revenue yesterday morning and entered a protest against putting into effect a circular which provides for the substitution of the weighing system for that of retail. The delegation was composed of William Lashburn, H. P. Goldsborough, Lewis Becker, R. B. Bruce, and Nathan Uman. Commissioner Wilson said that he could not promise any action in regard to a change in the circular.

Show Now a Lieutenant.

George C. Shaw, Captain and Inspector of Rifle Practice of the Second Regiment, District of Columbia National Guard, has been appointed a second lieutenant in the Twenty-seventh Infantry under Colonel Bell. The appointment of Lieutenant Shaw was made by the adjutant general, having enlisted as a private in the Twenty-seventh Infantry a few days after an unsuccessful attempt to secure a commission in the volunteer army, and in consequence the quota of the District will not be affected. Lieutenant Shaw has an extensive military education. He was adjutant of the Second Battalion, and a short time before the recent war he held the rank of captain of Company M.

Doing Successful Work.

The branch of Gen. Ballington Booth's American Volunteers, which was lately established in this city is accomplishing a very successful work. Meetings are held every Wednesday evening at the Fourth and East Capitol Streets, and open air meetings are conducted every evening at Seventh and Pennsylvania Avenues. The volunteers are doing successful work in the city. The open air meetings in particular are proving very interesting, large crowds attending. The volunteers are doing successful work in the city.
